

Penal Reform Seminar

The Quaker Settlement
Whanganui, 21-23 May 2021

P→r→a→c→t→i→c→a→l

→
W
→
a
→
y
→
s

F
→
O
→
r
→
W
→
a
→
r
→
d

Commencing with dinner on Friday at 6.30pm
and ending with lunch on Sunday

Facilitated by Garry Buckman, and Ian Stewart

Taking Inner Peace to Prisons and Communities

The YM Penal Reform Committee has designed a stimulating program.

On Friday evening, we will hear from each other about where we are currently at. On Saturday, we will listen to sobering and heartening stories and discuss them in group work.

On Sunday, we will plan and examine our way forward

Speakers are:

- Chris Dawson:
The Peace Education Programme, running successfully in many countries and prisons.
- Te Kaipo Ahuriri (pictured):
My lived prison experience, ex-gang leadership and anti-methamphetamine campaign.
- Vincent Wijesingha:
The up to the minute work to create The Salvation Army's criminal policy.

How can we, individually or in a group, take part in the reform of New Zealand's criminal justice system? Join us on the

Send any queries re Content to Garry: garry.buckman57@gmail.com

REGISTRATION FORM

Penal Reform Seminar 2021

Name(s): _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Transport:

Arriving: Day _____ Time _____

I can offer ____ seat(s) in my/our car OR

Please collect me/us from:

Intercity Bus Depot Whanganui Airport

(Note: we will only collect from Whanganui arrival points)

Catering:

Simple wholesome vegetarian fare.

Gluten free catered for if indicated here:

Other special needs.....

Accommodation and Total Costs (including registration and food) Tick choice please

Units - these are limited and share twin beds
Made up beds and towels provided $164

Sleeping House - shared space or cabins
Bring sleeping bag, pillowslip and towel $128

Camping (caravan/tent) $110/102

Living out $96

Half of all accommodation, meals and registration costs will be paid by the QEF for Quakers, Attenders and their family members participating in the seminar.

REGISTER

Online via www.quakersettlement.co.nz

Or, email: syntonychris86@gmail.com

with all details requested on the above form.

Please register by 14 May, 2021.

Please pay online or bring cash to the seminar

Bank account details for payment:

"Friends' Settlement Seminar Account"

03 0791 0450066 00